Timers (with time not changeable - the game has no options) combined with slightly laggy mouse input (including mouse movement - needed to move to other letters), make this game - which can't be resized - and which has no difficulties to choose from, fairly unplayable & very unfulfilling.

Also uses some VERY obscure words - Maguey and Drupes, anyone?

(I feel this would be okay in the hardest difficulty setting, if it had them - but not in the default/only difficulty)

Unless the game gets updated with timer settings & difficulty added, Avoid!
